WITFULL WINS.

Despite the off-day card presented by Secretary Jasper at Worth yesterday, the racing was good throughout, four of the finishes being of a close and exciting nature. The most important race of the day was the fourth, a dash of one mile, for all ages. Witfull was rightfully made a decided first choice, but hardly won as the odds indicated she should, Toah almost catching her in the closing strides.

To a good start, Coruscate went to the front and held command until nearing the far turn, where Witfull easily assumed the lead when called on. When a furlong out Witfull appeared to be winning easily but had to be hand ridden smartly all through the last hundred yards to stall off Toah's determined challenge. She won by a short head, Toah finishing four lengths before Coruscate for second place. Palm Reader cut across Toah at the first quarter, causing him to lose ground. The latter then made up ground rapidly after passing the far turn and came with a belated rush under a strong ride. Palm Reader was badly cut down when he cut across Toah. Coruscate showed speed, but tired rapidly when the pinch came. Alfredo ran well up for five furlongs and then fell away beaten.

The first race of the day, a dash of one mile, for four-year-olds and over, proved to be an easy thing for James J. Corbett, skillfully ridden by Ferrell. Tom Kingsley led to the far turn, where James J. Corbett easily passed him and was never afterward headed, winning easily by one length from Frank M., which finished a neck before Atheola for second place. Frank M. stood a stretch drive with more gameness than usual and outstayed Atheola in the last sixteenth drive for second place. Little Wilson was not strong enough to handle Pronta well, allowing her to fall almost hopelessly out of it in the first half mile. She moved up fast thereafter and finished going well on her own courage. Fourleaf C. ran in improved form.

The second race, a dash of five and a half furlongs, for two-year-olds, resulted in a surprise, Fly Lady, against which as good as 7 to 1 could be had, finishing first. She led from start to finish, winning in a mild drive by a half length from Leila, which finished one and a half before Badger Girl for second place. Leila was under vigorous urging in the final eighth, but could not quite get up. Badger Girl made up some ground in the final quarter and easily outstayed My Gem in the final eighth struggle for third place. The latter tired rapidly in the final sixteenth and was passed by Wistaria at the finish. She can do much better but is very inconsistent.

The third race, at seven furlongs, for three-year-olds and over, resulted in another close finish, the winner turning up in Sarah Maxim, held at 4½ to 1 in the betting. Goodman, showing much speed, led by a big margin for the first six and a half furlongs and appeared to be winning easily, but Sarah Maxim stole up fast next to the inside rail in the final sixteenth, just getting up in time to win by a head on the post, Goodman finishing three and a half lengths before Jim Hale for second place. Goodman was simply not quite good enough to withstand Sarah Maxim's determined challenge in the closing strides. Jim Hale tired perceptibly when a sixteenth out. Eva's Darling was never a serious contender and ran an unaccountably dull race.

The fifth race, a dash of six furlongs, for two-year-olds, was marred by the uncalled-for actions of jockey Booker, who rode General Steward. The latter, showing much speed, led all the way, winning in a hard drive by a head from Ralph Young, which finished two lengths before Avenger for second place. When a furlong out Booker repeatedly beat Ralph Young over the head, Young being placed first, Avenger second for which his mount was disqualified, Ralph and Myron Dale third. Ralph Young finished resolutely and but for the interference would undoubtedly have won. Instrument ran well for four and a half furlongs and then retired.

Charley Thompson played with the field in the sixth race, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles, for three-year-olds and upward. He led from start to finish, spreadeagling the field and winning in a canter by five lengths from Ledus, which finished three and a half before Boaster for second place. Ledus responded gamely to punishment in the final eighth and was easily best of the others. Boaster ran a dull race and can do much better. He showed scant speed and finished third simply because there were no horses that amounted to much back of him.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

General Steward, ridden by J. Booker, was disqualified by the judges after winning the fifth race on account of the foul riding tactics indulged in by Booker. The horse was slightly in the lead approaching the last sixteenth, but was beginning to tire and Ralph Young was gradually closing on him and was seemingly going the fastest. Booker, to keep Ralph Young from passing his mount, drew his whip and applied it vigorously on Ralph Young's head, causing the latter to falter. Jockey McIntyre immediately on dismounting lodged a complaint against Booker with the judges and they promptly set General Steward back, placed Ralph Young first, Avenger second and Myron Dale third. Later they announced that Booker had been suspended by them for ten racing days for foul riding. The wording of the suspension means that he will not be permitted to ride in California, where it is understood he is going, for the first nine days of that meeting.

Jockey Dominick expects to go to California shortly, where he will ride until about February, when his contract with Fred Cook expires. Dominick is the latest rider to have the going abroad bug in his system, and his present intention is to go to Russia and ride next year. So far he has had no offer from any foreign horsemen, but he thinks he will have no trouble in securing a lucrative position as soon as it becomes known that he is going to Russia.

Palm Reader, which started in the fourth race, was badly cut down and will in all probability not be in racing shape again for a long time. The mishap occurred at the six furlong post, where Palm Reader cut across the field and nearly threw Toah. The latter was forced to jump on him to keep from going down.

Talbot Bros.' horses, which include Wainamoinen, Talpa and Prince Silverwings, were shipped yesterday to Paris, Ky., where they will be turned out for the winter.

Burnie Bunton is reported to be thoroughly recovered from her recent mishap and recently worked six furlongs in a fraction less than 1:17.

Jockey Helgesen, who was injured by a fall at the Buffalo meeting, has thoroughly Winner—Ch. f, by Wawekus—Suscol (trained by F. Bruhns).

Went to post at 2:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Ice Water, easily best and evidently a superior class filly, indulged Ostrich to the stretch, where she ran past him in a flash, coming away in a canter at the end. Ostrich forced a tremendously fast pace for nearly five furlongs and then stood off Lord Badge's strong challenge at the end with superior gameness. This is a coming good colt. Lord Badge found the pace too fast and he was driving early to keep within striking distance, gaining, however, in the long stretch run and would have been third in another stride. Ascension fell away in the early running, then loomed up midway of the stretch, after which she tired badly. Demurrer showed a lot of speed for five furlongs. Moharib, wearing blinkers for the first time, sulked from the start.

Scratched—42311 Duke of Kendal, 126; 42462 Northern Star, 125; 42512 Hello, 110; 42464 Molinos, 102.

Winner—Ch. f, by Flambeau—Gretchen (trained by H. M. Mason).
Went to post at 2:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Flammula, after getting away none too well, raced into a good lead in the first sixteenth and kept it up to the finish, displaying high-class form and unexampled gameness in stalling off two such bulldogs as Wotan and Reliance. Wotan quickly ran into a prominent position and, after apparently losing ground on the turn, came again when straightened out for home, but he could never get up in spite of a very game and true effort. Reliance, showing unexpected early speed, went after the winner at the start and followed her closely throughout and at the end was wearing Wotan down for second place. He is a coming good one, especially over a long distance of ground. Mineola ran a superior race, yet she can do better. Silverfoot showed sudden improvement and may be useful as he is a good looker. Briarthorpe got away very badly. Hiawatha will make good in a slower class.

Scratched—42559 Ostrich, 114; 42464 Molinos, 110; 42488 M. Theo, 107; 42536 Jasper, 103.

Winner—Ch. c, by Hastings—Ortega (trained by F. Burlew).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Oarsman raced into a long lead early and won all the way and at the end was only cantering, showed much improvement over his preceding race. Grenade, very badly ridden, was repeatedly taken up in the early running and probably choked into weariness, turned for home in the inside deep going, but finished gamely, outstaying Contusion in a long final drive. The latter ran a fine race and sustained her superior speed unusually well. Young Henry, after trailing his field to the stretch, moved up with a brief burst of speed and then fell away again and has evidently trained off. Futurita was outclassed and was never dangerous.

Scratched—42311 Duke of Kendal, 110; (42489) Gaviota, 102; 42559 Moharib, 90.

Overweights—Grenade, 2 pounds; Futurita, 2.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

recovered and was a visitor at Worth yesterday. Speaking of his future plans Helgesen said: "I am going to Louisville tonight, where I will exercise horses until I am again in riding shape, then I will in all probability go to Latonia and accept a few mounts. From there I will go to New Orleans and ride the coming winter." Helgesen has grown stout and at present weighs 112 pounds, but he expects to ride this winter at about 100 pounds.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

W. Redfern, father of jockey Arthur Redfern, is pleased at having made a good engagement for the young lightweight to ride at Los Angeles. The Redferns were expecting to spend the winter months in southern California, but Redfern, Sr., recently received a communication from Joseph Yeager, asking for terms on the jockey's services for the Los Angeles meeting, says Morning Telegraph of Wednesday.

Redfern wired his terms, which were accepted without further dickerings, and, as Yeager has some good horses in his stable, the jockey should win a lot of races in the Yeager colors at the southern California track.

It looks as if Yeager, who made his debut as an owner of any note this year, will have about the best jockey riding in California during the season, as Redfern has certainly shown that he is back to his old form, and has recently been riding the kind of races that earned him so much favorable comment last winter and spring. When he received his bad fall last spring at the Aqueduct track he was laid up and unable to ride until the Gravesend meeting, and seemed afterward to have lost his good form. He had rather a bad run of luck all through the summer, but has of late come back to his own, and is now fit to make the star rider of the Pacific coast when he goes there.

The five mares W. S. Barnes, of the Melbourne Stud, mated to the dead King Eric last year, the horse now so famous as the sire of Dick Welles, were:

The Lady in Blue, by Himyar—British Blue Blood, by Bendigo.

Fun and Folly, by Jim Gore—Lady Jack, by Hayden Edwards.

Sunnyland, by Fonso—Savannah, by Sid-dartha.

Switzerland, by Jim Gore—Lady Jack, by Hayden Edwards.

Trinity, by King Alfonso—Vendu, by Virgil. The produce of the latter will be either nearly a brother or sister-in-blood to Rome Respass' colt. Eleven of the mares in the Melbourne stud are sure in foal to Hand-spring this year.

William C. Whitney, owner of the La Belle Stud, has consigned to the Fasig-Tipton Company, for their December sales in Lexington, the stallions Ballyhoo Bey, winner of the Futurity of 1900; Intruder, half brother to David Garrick, and Lissak, the sire of the many-times Derby winner Claude. He has also consigned eighteen broodmares, which will be sold at the sale.

A consignment of thirty yearlings, the get of Star Ruby and Golden Garter, has been made by J. B. Haggins.

O. K. SELECTIONS.

ROOM 23, 95 WASHINGTON ST., CHICAGO.

Telegraphed to out-of-town clients.

AHUMADA, 8 to 5 WON was the good winner I put over yesterday, my other selection, UNMASKED, being scratched. I am making a wonderful record for myself. Monday I opened the AQUEDUCT meeting by putting through that good thing,

SCOTCH PLUME, 50 to 1, WON

Day after day and week after week I have been putting these good things over—and why not? Being a Foreman of a racing stable, and being up and doing at the break of dawn, watching the preparations of the different stables, enables me to furnish you with these two good things each day. My record at BRIGHTON BEACH demonstrates beyond a reasonable doubt that my information is a winning one.

$5 STRAIGHT AT BRIGHTON WON $330.00.

$375.00 $45.00

You will notice that in mostly every case my good things have finished in the money, and if you should be unable to take advantage of my daily racing wire, I would advise you to forward me $25 and I will place $5 straight to each one of my selections, mailing you my selections each a. m. Thereby you will be notified of your daily play in advance. When operating for you I charge nothing for my information, but simply deduct 20 per cent of the net weekly winnings. Therefore, to get anything for myself, I must make you win. Winnings will be mailed you at the end of each week's play; also itemized statement.

SATURDAY AND NEXT WEEK.

For Saturday a long one at about 30 to 1, which will be my grand special of the week. This one has been in preparation for some time, and is fit and ready to win. For Next Week my regular two good things each day. For Monday a couple at about 8 to 1 each that are the goods. For Tuesday a good one at about 8 to 1 and another at about 6 to 1. For Wednesday a long one at probably 10 or 15 to 1. Don't fail to subscribe at once for these good ones.

My terms for information are $2 per day; $5 for three days. Special Terms for the entire AQUEDUCT meeting (11 days), $10. Mail orders telegraphed at 7 a. m. Address

EASTERN TURF GOSSIP.

Of points of interest cropping up in connection with the Aqueduct racing of Tuesday, the Sun of Wednesday says:

"When Silver Dream, which was No. 3 on the program, won the third race yesterday, the crowd was dumfounded at the hoisting of Dimple's number, 6, as the winner. There was a great shout all along the line, for Silver Dream had won decisively, while Dimple was out of the money. The mistake was quickly rectified, and upon making an investigation it was learned that Judge McDowell was in no way to blame. He had called the first three horses correctly and had reached for a board in No. 3 pocket before him to indicate the winner to the man who handles the jockey board across the track. But by some error a No. 6 board had been placed in the No. 3 pocket, something over which Judge McDowell had no control. It was said that the man whose sole duty it has been at all local tracks to take charge of these pockets was for some reason dispensed with by the Aqueduct management, which, by the way, has also deprived Judge McDowell of his able assistant, C. H. Pettigill, who has been calling the third horses at metropolitan tracks for several years. With the progress made by the Queens County Jockey Club in other directions, it seems to be strange that such an important item should have been neglected.

"The brother of George Thompson, the American jockey who had been riding with marked success in France this year, visited Aqueduct yesterday. He said that the little jockey, who is still able to ride at 93 pounds, stands second in the list in France, and has an excellent chance to beat out Ranch, the American boy, who is at the top just now. Thompson will ride Caius in the Cambridge-shire in England today, the horse with which he ran second in the Grand Prix. The boy will return here this winter to ride either at New Orleans or San Francisco. Father Bill Daly, by the way, will send some horses to the coast for the coming campaign, while the Schaffer-Meyer confederacy will race at the Crescent City.

"John McCue, betting commissioner for Frank Farrell, is in luck these days. Following his $10 wager on Athlana at 100 to 1 on Monday, McCue placed $100 on Gaviota in the Nassau Stakes yesterday at 15 to 1, after putting down a commission for Mr. Farrell on Stolen Moments.

"John McGraw, manager of the New York Nationals, said yesterday that the report that he had won $12,000 since the Brighton meeting was untrue. 'I never saw $12,000 in my life,' said John yesterday, 'but if I ever do, I'll put a cotton hook into it so quick that I'll be busy for a week fastening bills together.'

"Pinkerton has made arrangements to police the new track at Los Angeles, Cal., this winter. Seymour Butler will be in charge.

"Gannon is in disfavor with the Keene stable. It was said that much fault has been found with his riding this season. He was set aside for Redfern yesterday in the Nassau Stakes, the latter having the mount on Stolen Moments. The other day Burns received the preference over Gannon in another instance. In all probability the Keenes will relinquish second call on Gannon for next season, and it will not be at all surprising if Tommy Burns, until recently one of W. C. Whitney's jockeys, is signed as the regular rider for the Keenes.

"Briarthorpe was a hot tip yesterday, and many took advantage of it. He was backed down from 40 to 1 to fifteens, and many books lost big money.

"Starter Cassidy has introduced a new method of sending the fields away. He makes the horses stand in line ten yards behind the barrier and then allows them to walk forward slowly to get the word while in motion, instead of flatfooted. So far Cassidy's work has not been up to the Fitzgerald standard of excellence."

Winner—Ch. h, by Kingston or St. Maxim—Eleanor (trained by P. W. Hedges).

Went to post at 2:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. James J. Corbett was not called on until entering the final quarter, where he assumed command and held the field safe all through the final sixteenth. Frank M. stood a stretch drive gamely and outstayed Atheola in the last sixteenth struggle for second place. The latter finished going fast but could not quite reach. Wilson was too light to give Pronta the strong ride she requires and allowed her to drop too far out of it in the first half. She made up much ground on the far turn, but had little left to finish with. Fourleaf C. tired slightly in the last sixteenth after running a good race up to this point. Tom Kingsley ran well for five furlongs.

Scratched—42432 Lighthunt, 112.

Corrected weights—Atheola, 104; Frank M., 109.

Overweights—Baird, 2 pounds; Jim Winn, 3.

Winner—Ch. f, by Sir Walter—Ace of Hearts (trained by G. W. Belknap).

Went to post at 2:40. Off at once to a good start. Won handily; second easily. Fly Lady showed improvement and ran the best race of her career. She showed speed throughout and stood off Leila's determined challenge gamely with a little shaking up in the last hundred yards. Leila was right there all the way, but tired slightly in the closing strides. Badger Girl finished resolutely after making up ground in the final quarter. My Gem ran an unaccountably dull race and can do much better. She showed a little early speed but faded away fast in the final quarter.

Winner—Ch. f, by St. Maxim—Sarah Ramey (trained by J. Phillips).

Went to post at 3:05. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Sarah Maxim finished resolutely, running next to the inside rail in the final eighth and just got up in time to nip Goodman on the post under vigorous urging. The latter showed much speed, but tired slightly in the last hundred yards. Jim Hale tired badly in the last eighth struggle. Eva's Darling was thoroughly beaten when turning for home. Winner—Ch. f, by Mirthful—Response (trained by S. C. Hildreth).

Went to post at 3:30. Off at once to a fair start. Won hard ridden; second easily. Witfull was not called on until rounding the far turn, where she assumed command and appeared to be winning easily when a furlong out, but had to be hand ridden in the final hundred yards to stall off Toah's determined challenge. The latter was cut off sharply by Palm Reader at the first quarter. He moved up fast when turning for home and finished with a belated rush. Coruscate showed early speed, but tired in the last eighth struggle. Palm Reader ran well for six furlongs, but pulled up very lame. Alfredo was well beaten after rounding the far turn.

Winner—Br. c, by Oakwood—Freyja (trained by J. Arthur).

Went to post at 3:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. General Steward showed much speed and stood a last eighth drive with much gameness. When a furlong out, J. Booker, on the winner, kept hitting Ralph Young repeatedly over the head, for which his mount was disqualified. Ralph Young being given the race, with Avenger second and Myron Dale third. Ralph Young finished going fast and but for the interference, would undoubtedly have won. Avenger ran well, but tired slightly in the last eighth struggle. Instrument was well beaten when turning for home.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second easily.

Charley Thompson was much the best, showed high speed throughout and simply played with the field. Ledus finished resolutely under vigorous urging and was much the best of the others. Boaster ran a dull race and can do much better. He finished third simply because there was nothing to amount to much back of him. C. B. Campbell runs to his best form in mud only. Alfred C. ran well for six furlongs.

Winner—B. c, by Hermence—Biddy Doyle (trained by J. F. Daniels).
Went to post at 2:04. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same.
Foley, on Lord Hermence, saved all ground possible, brought him along fast next to the rail and just got him up in time to win. Lady Free Knight ran her best race, showing much speed, but tired slightly at the end. Miss Crawford was held out of it in the first half.
taken wide on the turns and poorly ridden in the stretch. Bugler ran to the mark. Miller tired. Sheehan was run off for his ride on Miss Crawford.
Overweights—Lord Hermence, 5 pounds; Lady Free Knight, 3; Bugler, 2.

 Winner—Ch. g. by King Eric—Mary T. II. (trained by B. Hurd).
 Went to post at 4:23. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second easily. King's Court was carefully saved, avoided all interference, came fast in the stretch while the others were bumping each other all over the track and won drawing away. Dr. Holscher got away badly and made up a huge gap. Roger Smith also ran an impressive race after overcoming interference. Noweta quit under pressure. John II. had a stormy trip. Nettie Regent was closing up fast in the stretch. Wilhelmina and Optimo quit badly. It was a falsely run race.
 Scratched—42517*Helen Hay, 98.
 Overweights—King's Court, 2 pounds; Dr. Holscher, 2; Varna Fonso, 5.
 King's Court, show, 3 to 1. Dr. Holscher, show, 4 to 1. Roger Smith, show, 3 to 1. John II., show, 7 to 10.
